REPORT ON CONSTITUTION DAY CELEBRATIONS

Government Degree College Solan

26th November 2025

Constitution Day, observed on November 26th, commemorates the adoption of the Indian Constitution. It is a day of national importance, reminding us of our foundational values of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity. It serves to reaffirm our commitment to the ideals enshrined in this living document and to educate citizens, especially the youth, about their rights and duties.

Institutional Initiative

Our college, Government Degree College, took the initiative to celebrate this seminal event with great fervour. The celebrations spanned two days, November 25th and 26th, 2025, and were meticulously organized by the Department of Political science and (ELC). The event lineup included competitive events like Poster Making, Declamation, and Quiz, complemented by vibrant cultural performances including Natti, Bhangra, and a Skit.

Planning and Coordination

The celebrations were set in motion by a crucial planning meeting convened on Tuesday, November 18th, 2025. The meeting was presided over by

Dr. B.N. Kamal (Convenor & HOD, Political Science)

Dr. Priyanka Multani (Department of Political Science)

Dr. Bharti Gupta (Convenor, ELC & Department of Political Science)

The central agenda was to finalize the calendar for the Constitution Day celebrations. After active discussions with members from all years, the committee successfully charted a twoday schedule. It was decided that the celebrations would officially commence on November 25th with the Poster Making competition, followed by the formal Declamation Contest and Quiz Competition on November 26th. The meeting concluded with the effective distribution of duties among members to ensure the event's success.
