Report: Nipun Testing Camp for Rangers

The Bharat Scouts and Guides, Himachal Pradesh State Headquarters, organized the State Level Nipun Testing Camp for Rangers at the State Training Centre, Rewalsar, District Mandi, H.P., from 10th to 14th December, 2025. Nipun Qualification for Rangers is a vital stage in the Progressive Training Scheme of the Bharat Scouts and Guides, aimed at developing proficiency in essential scouting skills, discipline, and leadership qualities. As Lord Baden-Powell aptly said, “The real way to gain happiness is to give it to others.” Inspired by this philosophy, the Nipun qualification phase is designed to prepare Rangers for service-oriented leadership and responsible citizenship. In this regard, five students from our college have brought great pride to the institution by successfully completing their training at the state-level Nipun Testing Camp. Anshika Thakur, Binakshi, Mehak Bhagnal, Aastha Jamwal and Muskan represented our college in the camp. During the rigorous five-day program, the Rangers received intensive training in important areas such as trekking, handicrafts, disaster management, health, and life skills.

Outcomes of the State Level Nipun Testing Camp Participation

- 1. Enhanced Scouting Skills and Competence:
Through intensive training, the Rangers strengthened their proficiency in key areas such as trekking, handicrafts, disaster management, and essential life skills.
- 2. Improved Leadership and Discipline:
The camp's structured training modules instilled discipline, teamwork, and leadership qualities, aligning with the core objectives of the Progressive Training Scheme.
- 3. Development of Service-Oriented Attitude:
Inspired by the spirit of service emphasized in the Nipun stage, the participants gained a deeper commitment to community service and responsible citizenship.
- 4. Increased Preparedness for Emergencies:
Hands-on disaster management training equipped the Rangers with practical skills to handle emergencies effectively, enhancing their capability to serve society in critical situations.
- 5. Boosted Confidence and Personal Growth:
The rigorous five-day schedule challenged the participants physically and mentally, fostering resilience, self-confidence, and personal development.
- 6. Motivation for Peer Participation:
Their achievement serves as an inspiration for other students to engage in Scouting activities and participate in future training programs.
