Gender Sensitisation Lecture

A Gender Sensitisation Lecture was conducted on August 13, 2025, at the CDPO Office, with a specific focus on the provisions of the Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Act. The session was aimed at enhancing awareness regarding legal protections and institutional mechanisms to ensure safe and equitable workplaces. Two professors from the Committee against Sexual Harassment and Women Empowerment Cell of Government College, Solan, attended the programme. The resource person for the event was Mrs Akanksha Dogra, Civil-cum Judicial Magistrate Class I. The event was attended by female staff members from various government offices, including two female representatives from the College, who actively engaged in the deliberations. The lecture reaffirmed the collective responsibility of institutions in upholding gender sensitivity and workplace dignity.
